Dear Tiffany,

It was such a pleasure to get to know you through the Healthy Wealthy Wow Reality Makeover. I heard you on the radio show and was impressed with your down-to-earth wisdom. When I met Robbie and Kim, they both spoke very highly of you and of the many ways that you help women to heal.

In the presentations that you provided for the Healthy Wealthy Wow makeovers, you truly touched the lives of the women in the group. They were able to look at their own lives and pinpoint times when a self-destructive label had been mentally attached to them. The keys you provided helped the women to take an objective look at the labels and remove them. Self-healing is a process of time and caring, but you certainly gave the women in the group a "roadmap" to follow.

I was also impressed with your honesty and openness with the women. Because you were able to look frankly at your own life and learning experiences, you created a safe atmosphere for the other women to examine their feelings and experiences. What a powerful gift you gave them that night.

Thank you for the opportunity to get to know you and participate in the workshop. Through your efforts, many women will take those important steps on the road to self-healing and a healthy self-image.

Sincerely,

Daphne Budge
